

The Académie musicale de Villecroze is delighted to propose a

Oboe MASTER CLASS

From Tuesday 3rd August till Saturday 14th August 2010

End of seminar concert on Friday 13th August 2010 – 8:30 pm

Professor: Alexei Ogrintchouk

Students:

The Academy is inviting 10 to 12 oboists to take part in a master class conducted by Alexei Ogrintchouk.

Entry criteria: Well established academic music school diploma (CNSMD, Musikhochschule or equivalent) and/or international competition award winner.

Programme: Free

Admission:

To apply please send a complete CV (indicating date of birth), a no longer than 15 minute recording of a renowned classical piece, two reference letters purposely written towards this application as well as the application form which can be downloaded at:

www.academie-villecroze.com

Applications should reach our Parisian offices no later than 2nd March 2010

Académie musicale de Villecroze – 41, rue de l'Université – 75007 Paris - France

Fax: +33 1 45 51 91 65 – Email: e.labarchede@academie-villecroze.com

On arrival:

Students will be accommodated in comfortable individual studio flats. Workshop and rehearsal rooms are numerous. A large library is at the students' disposal. Costs of transport to the Les Arcs Draguignan train station or Nice airport are the only costs that the student has to take care of. Traveling fare can be claimed depending on certain conditions regarding personal resources.

Successful applicants will be invited, full costs covered, to spend 12 days on the seminar site at Villecroze (110kms from Nice). Attending students should be available for the whole duration of the master class.

*The name of "L'Académie musicale de Villecroze" originates in a south of France village (Midi) where it is set up.
Founded by Anne Gruner Schlumberger, the Academy offers master classes since 1981 to young musicians of high caliber from around the world.*